Now that Halloween is over and all the candy has been eaten, it's time to get those Z's ready for the trips over the mountains and through the woods to visit family and/or friends for the Thanksgiving holiday.

The October Desert Tower run combined with a poker element was fantastic with approximately 13 cars. There were old Z's, new Z's and a couple of wannabe Z's. Early morning was cloudy, but the rest of the day was all sunshine and very pleasant temperatures. I believe everyone had a wonderful time driving the back roads to the Desert Tower and continuing to Descanso Café for lunch. Congratulations to Rob Johnson for having the winning poker hand. A big Thank You to Clif and Marcia for putting together a very enjoyable run.

Our annual Wine Run will be on Saturday, November 4th. If you show up on Sunday, you missed the event. Details are provided later in this newsletter. Join the run and get a head start on your holiday gift shopping and holiday meal items.

The board is looking for new board members to assist in steering the club into the future. If interested in assisting, please contact one of the board members. Better yet, run for one of the board positions as elections are this month.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING to everyone!

Z you on the road.

Michael

It's that time of the year where the club would like to get input on what events the members want to do for next year. Please come to November's meeting and give let us know what you want.

Also it's also time to nominate board positions of the club. Michael wants someone to take his spot since he will be driving a Dodge. Maybe someone will come forward or NOT will be the question!!

Also if anyone knows of a shop or service that we can have as a guest speaker, please give some input. Lately the club has been lacking on that.

The wine run will be happening before the meeting. So see you on the run and the meeting.

DESERT VIEW TOWER SCENIC DRIVE AND POKER RUN

Thanks for the big turnout for our October club run. I guess it takes cash on the barrel head to get a big turnout. After a great run with outstanding weather, a good meal at Descanso Junction Restaurant, the man with the big poker hand was Rob Johnson. The $50 cash prize might pay for his gas, he lives in Menifee, CA.

Along the way, our group of 13 cars passed through Dulzura, Potrero, Campo, Boulevard, Jacumba and finally, the one and only Desert View Tower. Welcoming bathrooms, and a host of dogs greeted our adventurous band of Z car lovers. (although not everyone was driving a Z car).

Marcy Montag made a deal with the owner, and the entire group got to make the trek to the top of the tower. El Centro can be seen in the distance, along with a giant amount of wind turbines.

Our homeward travels took us to the heights of Mt. Laguna and around the scenic Lake Cuyamaca. The foliage was turning to autumn colors and the sky was brilliant blue. What a great sight. We finished the day with a lunch stop at the Descanso Junction Restaurant.

Thanks again to all who joined us, and hope we see you on November 4, 2023 for the WINE RUN!!
